

Bill Ludwig

Bill Ludwig has extensive sales history and was president of Imports Direct for 25 years, in charge of business development, marketing, logistics and finance. He took his last company from a start up to a $20 million company in only 4 years. He was also the VP of Acawe a company that brought in workers from overseas and he was in charge of business development and government coordination.

