

Joanne Fultz

Originally from England, Joanne Fultz brings a blend of English charm and American drive to the city of Naples and South Florida, as a Certified International Property Specialist and International Realtor.

After earning her Bachelor of Arts with Honors in Foreign Languages and Marketing from the University of Nottingham, Joanne began working at a commercial real estate agency, representing a large portfolio of high-end golf courses and luxury hotels throughout France.

Joanne is a personal real estate investor herself, with a portfolio of properties in Paris, the UK, Ohio and Florida. She brings with her an extensive network of international and domestic clients. Her ethos is “exceptional service, personalized attention and international reach” – every client has specific and individual needs that must be met.

She speaks French & German, & is a board member of the Canada-Florida Chamber of Commerce.

<https://thefloridainternationalgroup.com>